Pastor Paul writes…

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

St. John wrote: "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' 'Blessed indeed,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!'" - Revelation 14:13

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead assures us that those who die in the Lord are blessed indeed, for they rest from their earthly labors in the joyful presence of the risen Christ. At the same time, their Spirit-powered deeds of faith on earth continue to bless the Church on earth. Those deeds include godly lives, words, and gifts that keep on giving to those who remain behind on earth.

As you may already be aware, Zion was blessed last year with a generous bequest from the Brase family. Gilbert & Barbara Brase loved their Lord and they loved their dear family of faith at Zion. Their gift to Zion calls for careful management and wise stewardship, so that it may be administered to the glory of God and for the long-term mission of Christ's kingdom priorities.

Therefore, a Pastor's Task Force has been established to study mission-serving priorities as they pertain to our house of worship, our property, and other capital improvements. The task force will evaluate project possibilities and various financing alternatives. They are directed to report back to the Board of Directors in July with their recommendations, so that the Board can recommend a course of action for voting by full membership at the September 2022 Annual Congregational Meeting.

The Task Force members consist of Board members Brian Jacobson, Rachel Nemy, and Bill Swift; Congregation members George Bishop, Jenise Hamblin, Shannon Shockley, and George Van Fossen; and staff members Pastor Paul and Steve Harger. I thank the Lord for such capable and willing volunteers, who will study and discuss the needs and opportunities before us, so that as the Lord's congregation we can do Christ's work to Christ's glory for the salvation of many precious souls.

I ask for your prayers upon this group, that their work may be guided by God's Spirit and be faithful to the task entrusted to them, that in all things the risen Christ may be glorified and His kingdom come.

In the name of the risen Savior, Jesus Christ,

Pastor Paul

UPCOMING EVENTS

Game Night

The fun and fellowship is an awesome thing to be part of at game night. The laughs, the discussions, and sharing add to the wonderful time that is had. In April Bill Keep, came out of nowhere, maybe even oblivion, to win it all at the end.

Join us on Tuesday, May 10th at 6:30 pm in the Conference Room.

Confirmation

We celebrate the Rite of Confirmation on Sunday, May 15, 2022 during our 10:00 am worship service. This year we only have one confirmand, Ms. Savanah Duarte. Please plan on joining her in worship as she professes for herself, that which was professed for her at her baptism.

The Questioning for Savanah will be on Saturday, May 14th via Zoom. Since Savanah's entire Confirmation Class experience was via Zoom, it is only fitting that her Questioning be conducted on Zoom as well. Attending the questioning is a great time for you to review your catechism knowledge as well. Watch the weekly announcements for the Zoom link.

Church Humor

The Florist

Joe was opening a new business, and one of his friends decided to send flowers for the occasion. The flowers arrived and Joe read the card. It said, "Rest in Peace."

Joe, enraged, called the florist to complain.
The florist replied, "Sir, I'm really sorry for the mistake, but rather than getting angry, you should imagine this: somewhere there is a funeral taking place today, and they have flowers with a note saying, "Congratulations on your new location."

You Choose

One beautiful Sunday morning, the pastor announced to his congregation: "My good people, I have here in my hands three sermons...a $100 sermon that lasts five minutes, a $50 sermon that lasts fifteen minutes, and a $10 sermon that lasts a full hour. "Now, we'll take the collection and see which one you have chosen."

Muldoon's Cat

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet cat for company.

One day the cat died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, "Father, me cat is dead. Could ya' be sayin' a mass fer the poor creature?"

Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not; we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there is a new denomination down the lane, and there's no telling what they believe. Maybe they will do something fer the creature."

Muldoon said, "I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think $1,000 is enough to donate fer the service?"

Father Patrick exclaimed, "Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why didn't ya' tell me the cat was Catholic?

RESPECT

Following the rise of Aretha Franklin's career from a young child singing in her father's church's choir to her international superstardom, "Respect" is the remarkable true story of the music icon's journey to find her voice and become the Queen of Soul.

STUDYING GOD'S WORD

IRON MEN

Food, Fun, Fellowship, and Faith Building, that is what Iron Men is all about. Men of Zion (and friends), join us on Thursday, May 12 at 6:30 pm. Our faith building discussion will continue with the Not-So-Nice-Bible-Stories: Gory Deaths. We predict, but do not guarantee, that our Gory Death is called "Getting A Bellyful". Sounds like most Iron Men gatherings. Join us when you can!

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS I

Having completed the first of the "Prison Epistles" of Saint Paul, the Letter to the Ephesians, we now turn to the Epistle to the Philippians. It is often called St. Paul's epistle of joy! "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!" (Philippians 4:4) Come and rejoice in the Lord with us on Sundays at 9:00 am in the Garden Room. Led by Pastor Paul.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS II

Sunday Bible Class II meets in the Conference Room at 9 am on Sunday mornings.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE CLASS

We are steadily making our way through our study of the book of Exodus and it is not too late to join us! We are reading how time and again God sees the needs of His people and provides a way of rescue by His grace and mercy. The holy God has compassion on His unholy and unfaithful people. This month we climb Mt. Sinai with Moses and receive the good and gracious words of God that today we call the Ten Commandments. Join us as we look at the context of this and we study its implications for our lives of faith and service to the Lord. You may gather with us either in-person or on-line via Zoom from 10:00-11:00 am on Wednesdays in the Garden Room.

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

II Timothy 3:14-17

Before and After

When Zion removed pews to make room for the piano and the choir in the back of the sanctuary and to make room for the worship technology station, old damaged linoleum and holes for an unused air return system were exposed. The Property Committee arranged to have a new floor installed in the sanctuary underneath the piano and also underneath the worship technology station.

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

THE ALTAR GUILD IS SEEKING NEW VOLUNTEERS

Are you interested in serving the Lord in a valuable, but behind-the-scenes format? Then serving on the Altar Guild may be for you. Caring for the altar and chancel, preparing for Holy Communion, filling the candles with oil, and hanging seasonal banners are among the sacred tasks which the members of the Altar Guild do for Zion.

Having many helpers means lighter work and volunteers can team up on a rotational schedule to provide the service needed while balancing the work with your busy schedule. If you are interested or would like to learn more, please contact Pastor Paul.

LWML News

Have you noticed the big cardboard box on the welcome table as you enter the narthex?

It's the LWML mites box...a place to collect your change (mites) to support various mission projects locally and worldwide. We don't seem to get a lot of small change these days of credit cards and COVID concerns. But the mission projects still exist and are in need of our prayers and offerings.

Here is a project the California/Nevada/Hawaii is currently gathering funds to support. Please prayerfully consider helping us fund this project by your generous offerings placed in our mite box.

Lutheran Books for Eritrean - $7,000

Lutheran Heritage Foundation, once part of Ethiopia, Eritrea, is one of the world's youngest countries, established in 1993. In recent years, Eritreans have been fleeing their country at a rate of 3,000 per month.

The largest populations of Eritreans, 5,000, are settling in California, some in Nevada. CNH congregations are reaching out to these Eritrean immigrants. Our LCMS pastors and congregations have recognized the need to reach out to the Eritreans with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, but the language barrier often hinders their ability to do so.

This grant proposal is for funds for Lutheran Heritage Foundation to translate, publish and distribute 5,000 Luther's small catechism and 1,000 colorfully-illustrated Bible storybooks that give a simple but thorough overview of 60 Old and New Testament Bible stories. Both books provide the tools to evangelize and teach new Christians in their native tongue. The books will be given free to churches, ministries and families.

FOOD OF THE MONTH

The Food of the Month is an ongoing project of the Christian Concerns Committee. There are still many Oakland residents who face food insecurities on a regular basis. Please consider adding extra groceries to your grocery cart for our Oakland neighbors in need. All groceries are given to City Team/ Oakland, for their various meal programs. Please look for the bright yellow barrels in the Narthex for your donations. God Bless your support for our neighbors in need!

A Response to a Holy Helper

"Holy Spirit, light divine,
Shine upon this heart of mine;
Chase the gloom of night away,
Turn the darkness into day.

Holy Spirit, love divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine,
In Your mercy pity me,
From sin's bondage set me free.

Holy Spirit, joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Fill me with Your heavenly peace,
Let it grow and still increase.

With the hearing and singing of a song - memories rush over us. This hymn was one of my mother's favorites. She always wanted all verses sung and not just during Pentecost, but all year long. After several strokes she lost her ability to sing, but we know she was singing this hymn when she entered eternal glory with Jesus almost eighteen years ago.

Memories of saints who have gone on to eternal life before us, or a favorite hymn or Scripture are all brought to our minds and hearts by a very special helper: the Holy Spirit.

Who is this Holy Helper? "The Holy Spirit is the Third Person of the Trinity; True God with the Father and the Son. The Holy Spirit calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith." (Martin Luther's Small Catechism: Third Article: Apostles' Creed)

The Holy Spirit helps us to understand God's Word and to accept it. It is the hand that grasps the Gift of Salvation (grace). And then sanctifies us (makes us holy) and helps us to become more like Jesus. This is all to the glory of God. "The Holy Spirit is always at work through the means of Grace, the Word and Sacraments and therefore we can always depend on those God-chosen and God-instituted means to bless us with forgiveness." (Pastor Paul Aldrich, email 3-23-2022)

We cannot believe in Jesus without the Holy Spirit. We can't come to God and believe in Him without the help of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit calls us by the Gospel. He helps us to see and understand what God's plan has been from eternity (1 Cor. 12:3, Romans 1:16).

All blessings are mine because of the Holy Helper. We receive God's Gift of grace and salvation by the Holy Spirit - and we receive special gifts of preaching, teaching, discernment, music, and wisdom. All of these gifts can be used to build up and encourage the Church. God gives us pastors - shepherds - to guide us and lead us. These men share God's word with us and explain to us how the Word can change our lives.

Other ministries: teachers, computer operators and other church workers also depend on the Holy Spirit to receive guidance. This Holy Helper gives them the wisdom and the words to share, to encourage and guide us.

One of the most important things a church member can do is to pray for their pastor! He must stand firm in the Word of God and only be guided by the Holy Spirit. Pastors and other ministers study God's Word constantly and pray.

When we are in the Word, the Holy Spirit fills us with understanding and joy and hope. God gives us promises and He keeps them! When we worship God, we remember those promises and our hearts are filled with joy and awe that eternal mighty God would love such as us. When we sing, encourage, pray and listen to each other, the Holy Spirit works to build up His Church of believers (Romans 15:4).

The Holy Spirit is the Divine author of Scripture. He gives us instruction and hope. Because the Holy Spirit – through His Words – gives us this encouragement and joy, we are able to love and help our neighbor as Jesus has told us to do. The indwelling Spirit works within us to know and do His will (Ephesians 5:18).

When we are studying God's Word and we have difficulty understanding, the Holy Spirit enlightens us and gives us a better understanding. Many times we are too insensitive to God's voice. How powerful and exceedingly loving is His grace towards us, when we ignore and refuse to understand His leading. (Isaiah 48:8, Help us understand - Alistair Begg - 2003 Truth for Life)

We come humbly to worship God with our gifts (given to us by the Holy Spirit) and worship Him. It is the Holy Spirit Who takes our songs of praise up to Heaven. It is the Holy Spirit Who takes our prayers up the throne of God and presents them correctly to God (Romans 8:26). We so need this Holy Helper both to worship and to pray.

The Holy Spirit helps us to be diligent in our walk with Jesus. He reminds us with discernment which path to take. He helps us with words to uplift and encourage one another. Where would we be without this Holy Helper? As He helps us to forgive each other as we live on this earth, we can show others in the world how we are truly "different".

We are bought with a price of the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross for our sins. The joy we have in the resurrected Jesus shines our faith to others. This joy is also a Spirit-filled gift. When we look at creation, we can proclaim: "The heavens and earth declare the glory of God" (Psalm 19:1). The Holy Spirit lifts our hearts as we witness the beauty and astounding wonder of creation.

Faith, understanding, discernment, forgiveness, encouragement, worship and joy are all gifts from the Holy Spirit.

"Holy Spirit, pow'r divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine.
Cast down every idol throne,
Reign supreme and reign alone.
Holy Spirit, fill my heart;
Cleanse my life in every part
Your own temple I would be
Now and for eternity."

How wonderful it will be to sing this hymn with my mother for eternity!

Email Thanking Zion for Good Friday Service

Hello Pastor Aldrich,
Just a quick note to thank you and Zion Lutheran for your live Good Friday worship service last night. After our own service here in Hendricks (Christ Lutheran), I was hoping to round out the evening with some additional worship and came across Zion through the Livestream app on my Apple TV. I happened to tune in just as you were beginning your meditations on the Last Seven Words. I truly appreciated the perspectives you offered. God's great blessings to you and yours!

Paul Olson, Hendricks, Minnesota

Fellowship at Zion

On Sunday, March 27 John and Ruth Heinitz visited Zion and were honored during coffee hour for their more than 30 years serving Zion Lutheran School and Church.

On April 6 Zion Lutheran Church had the last Lenten Soup Supper of the year. That night included the "last lemon meringue pies" homemade by Cliff Cooper. Cliff Cooper and Kathy Bjornstad will be missed when they move to Seattle. Our prayers go with them as they settle into their new home.

Update the Church Directory

It has been a while since we did a church directory update. There are three ways to update your family information.

1) There will be a print out on the table in the narthex beginning on May 1 for you to verify your information and edit it if necessary.

2) Go to the Directory on the Zion Website. This is located in the directory/committees tab. Login and then click Edit My Family in the top righthand side. Then you can make any changes you need and even change your picture.

3) Email your changes to sharger@zionlutheran.net and Steve will update your information.

Then changes that are made are instantaneously online, however a printed version will also be available in church in June.

You can even download the Instant Church Directory for your phone and use the same login as for the website.

Catechism Corner

What is the Sacrament of the Altar?

It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, instituted by Christ Himself for us Christians to eat and to drink.

Where is this written?

The holy Evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke, and St. Paul write: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."
In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

What is the benefit of this eating and drinking?

These words, "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins," show us that in the Sacrament forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are given us through these words. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.

How can bodily eating and drinking do such great things?

Certainly not just eating and drinking do these things, but the words written here: "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins." These words, along with the bodily eating and drinking, are the main thing in the Sacrament. Whoever believes these words has exactly what they say: "forgiveness of sins."

Who receives this sacrament worthily?

Fasting and bodily preparation are certainly fine outward training. But that person is truly worthy and well prepared who has faith in these words: "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. But anyone who does not believe these words or doubts them is unworthy and unprepared, for the words "for you" require all hearts to believe.

Junior and Senior High News

Thank you to everyone who supported the youth using the Wall O' Money! Through your generosity $1,893 was given to help send our three youth (Abi, Savanah, and Blaise) to the Gathering. Also, big thanks to Juno-Ann Krohn for giving the youth enough airline miles for four of the five round-trip plane tickets. This experience will be an important time in their continued faith growth. Your continued prayers for the Gathering are greatly needed.

This month we look at our fifth sub-theme to the Gathering.

The One who made himself nothing (Phil. 2:7)—lower than all, slave of all, "the greatest sinner who ever lived" (Luther), the willing target and bearer of the full wrath of God for sins he did not commit (but we did!)—was raised in all glory as the "firstborn from the dead" (Col. 1:18), seated in all power at the right hand of God (Col. 3:1), and will return in all power, glory and majesty on the last day (Col. 3:4) to judge the living and the dead. On that great day, he will usher in his never-ending reign as King of kings and Lord of lords over his restored and perfected creation in the new heaven and earth.

"Sing with all the saints in glory, sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking:
Soon the storms of time shall cease;
In God's likeness we awaken,
Knowing everlasting peace."

"Oh, what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts for ages pleading, never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it;
there on high our welcome waits.
Every humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed the eternal gates."

"Life eternal! Heav'n rejoices:
Jesus lives who once was dead.
Shout with joy, O deathless voices!
Child of God, lift up your head!
Life eternal! Oh, what wonders crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When amid earth's closing thunders, saints shall stand before the throne."
(LSB 671:1-3)

What is now hidden will soon be revealed for all to see: "Your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, you also will appear with him in glory" (i.e., with your new, glorified body; Col. 3:4).

On that day, all will see (to their joy, or to their eternal regret and horror) that the Christian story really was and is the Story of Everything: Christ "made himself nothing…he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Therefore God highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Phil. 2:7-11)

In the meantime, despite suffering and opposition and disappointment and persecution and weakness and failure, but also with constant and persistent joy, determination, gratitude, faith and thanksgiving: "Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ" (Col. 1:28). "In him all things hold together" (Col. 1:17). "Christ is all" (Col. 3:9).

Mother's Day Devotional

As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you. Isaiah 66:13 : From Guidepost

When Leah, our daughter-in-law-to-be, told me of plans for the wedding reception, she mentioned there would be a special time when, as the mother of the groom, I would dance with our son Jeff.

At first I thought, Oh, no, me out there on the dance floor with everyone watching! But, as the time approached, I began to look forward to the dance. How special to have a few minutes with Jeff at the reception, perhaps the last few moments I'd get to spend with him before they left on their honeymoon and settled into their home in Colorado.

I imagined the profound and wonderful things I might say to Jeff during those moments.

The wedding festivities went by in a blur, and finally the time came for our dance. As I reached up to my son's tall shoulder and he grasped my right hand, all of the things I'd planned to say to him evaporated.

Instead, I found myself asking with concern, "I noticed you've been so busy you haven't eaten. Aren't you hungry?"

"I haven't eaten all day," he admitted, "but it's okay. They're putting together a basket of food from the reception for us to take in the car with us."

Looking down at his shoes I asked, "Do your feet hurt?"

"No, they're fine," he answered.

Soon the dance was over, and my friend Charlene was eager to know what Jeff and I had said. When I repeated the conversation, I laughed. Out there on the dance floor, I had asked my twenty-three-year-old son, who was an Air Force officer and a brand-new husband, if he was hungry or if his feet hurt!

I sat down and took off my own too-tight shoes, then reconsidered my seemingly wasted opportunity. Perhaps it had been just right after all. During that dance, I had unconsciously performed my last act of mothering by revisiting my first.

When our children are newborns, our questions are always, "Are they hungry? Are they hurt?" And as they grow, these questions grow into prayers that fit each new stage of their lives: "God, fill them and comfort them."

I put my shoes back on and made sure the basket of food was tucked into the backseat of Jeff and Leah's car before Jeff's college buddies started "decorating" it with plastic wrap. I was the one who borrowed the scissors from the receptionist so Jeff and Leah could cut the wrap to open the car door. After all, the need for parenting never really ends, not even with a final dance.

Dear Heavenly Father, thank You for the generous hearts of mothers. And give me also a heart of love for all who are hungry and hurt.
